Revolutionary War Soldier, William Burns was born in 1754 in Virginia. Her daughter, FrANCIE, joined DAR in October 1983. Her national number is 679499.

They are from William's son, Wiley Burns. Supposedly both John Burns and Wiley Burns were cousins who married Baker girls. The Civil War record of John Burns list his wife as Elizabeth Glessner but it was thought that that she was married to a Glessner then John Burns.

George Morris Baker was Elizabeth's father and he was the son of the revolutionary war solider, George Baker who is buried the Old Burns Cemetary in Morgan County, Indiana.

William Burns, the Revolutionary War Solider, had a large family in Clay County, Kentucky. He died and is buried there. His son, Wiley moved to Morgan County, Indiana.

There is a burial record of the CivilWar Veteran, John Burns who died March 4, 1883 and is buried in South Park Cemetary in Morgan County, Indiana.

Judge Franklin in his charge to the Grand Jury this morning, laid down the law regarding the importation of voters, and instructed the jury to look after this matter sharply. It was a little curious to watch some people present who pretend to run politics in the couty squirm. It is evident that the Judge does not regard trifling with franchises as a small matter.

The new scenery and drop curtain lately put in position at Parks & Hite's hall adds much to the effect of a play, as was attested by the large and appreciative audience last Monday night. Instead of a dull, unsightly appearance, the whole interior of the building now presents a bright, cheerful look. The public appreciates the spirit of enterprise exhibited by the owners of this property.

Henry Crone, of Jefferson township, who was smashed up in the Morgantown railroad wreck a few weeks ago, is able to be out and was in town Tuesday for the first. He is yet far from well, and can barely get around. He sustained a severe scalp wound, a broken jaw, and his back and neck were wrenched and sprained. Henry says that he was through the war and in any number of battles, but that he would rather take his chances in the worst battle he was ever in than to go through such a smash-up.

The Seventieth Indiana reunion occurs at Clayton, Hendricks county, next Thursday. The Seventieth boys of this locality have arranged to go overland, and for that purpose have chartered conveyances sufficient to take them over. A general invitation is extended to all soldiers to attend the reunion; and those of this locality who may wish to attend can secure transportation by speaking to the local committee here, or to any member of the Seventieth, who will refer them to the committee.

George M. Baker, one of our old citizens, died Sunday morning, 2nd inst., after a brief illness. Mr. Baker went to Indianapolis Tuesday of last week with a wagon load of peaches. While there he was taken with something like the cholera morbus, and when he got back to this city, Tuesday night, he was very sick and weak and unable to proceed to his home, some four or five miles south of town, but stopped with his son, H. C. Baker. Physicians were unable to give him any relief; he rapidly grew weaker and early Sunday morning died. He was 76 years old, was born in Kentucky, but came to this county when quite a young man, 60 years or more ago, and has been a resident of this township every sincs. Uncle George was a man who enjoyed the esteem of all his neighbors and acquaintances. He was a great lover of his country and its institutions; was a man of decided convictions and was free to express them. He was buried at Liberty grave yard Monday, Rev. Anderson officiating.

where a position awaits Mr. W. in a college at Los Angeles. Elmer is a very worthy young man, and the best wishes of his many friends in this city, of whom THE REPUBLICAN desires to be counted well up toward the front, accompany him wherever he may go.

Rev. A. Turner, of Redwing, Minn., delivered an excellent address to a large audience at the Rink last night. Subject The Republican Party and Prohibition. Dr. Turner took the view held by THE REPUBLICAN that the Republican party is the only practical temperance party. That it is fully abreast of public sentiment upon this question. That it has never failed to take the most advanced grounds practicable upon the question; and that whenever the Republicans have had the power they have legislated in the interest of temperance to the farthest extent that the public would sustain; while the so-called Prohibition party is a party of obstruction, who are more intent upon the defeating of the Republican party than upon advancing the cause they profess to exclusively represent. That, while the masses of the party may and doubtless are conscientious in their efforts, the leaders are largely controlled in the interest of the Democratic party, which is and always has been the whisky party. Dr. Turner discusses the question ably and forcibly, and shows up in strong light the position of the various parties upon this important question.

That he Enlisted in the army of the United States in the year 1776 in May or June of said year for the term of two years and six months in the continental line in [illegible] Sixth Regiment of said line under Colonel Lillington enlisted by George Dorothy Lieutenant Colonel and the Major's name not recollected he says he served in the company commanded by Captain John Baptist Ash 1st Lieutenant George Donatty and Second Lieutenant Armstrong that he served under said enlistment untill about the first of September in the said year at which time the said declarer says he was taken sick and returned home and remained at home untill some time in the Spring of the following year which was in the year 1777 to the [illegible] his recollection that he was not able to march with the army untill sometime in the Spring of said year of 1777, about the middle of May in said year that he continued in the army from said time untill about the middle of August in said year at which time he received a discharge at Guilford County North Carolina the reason why he was discharged at that time was because he was sick again and he hired a certain Humphry Price to serve in his room and stead at which time he the said declarer got a regular discharge signed by Major John Armstrong of the fourth Batta=lion which discharge he has long since lost

This declarer says that in the year of 1775 sometime in that year he does not recollect the precise time he volunteered for forty days in the army of the United States under the command of Captain Hightower and Lieuten=ant William Leemore that they marched to Salem in the State of North Carolina for the purpose of fighting the Scotch at Cross Creek but when we got to Salem we learned that they were subdued by Caswells army and we returned home

That he volunteered in the army of the United States some time in the winter of 1778 or 1779 for the term of three months and served under the command of Colonel Joseph Phillips and the Majors name was James Shepherd the Captains name under whom he served for the term of four days was William Thrawl the said Declarer says he acted as Ensign in the company to which he belonged for the term of the said four days that Thrawl acted as Captain and this declarer says he himself

That he was at different times out in Scouting parties for the purpose of preventing the Tories from doing mischief in Wilkes County in the State of North Carolina he says the Scouting party to which he belonged was commanded by Captain Andrew Baker he does not recollect the precise time he was out in those Scouts but he thinks something like one month which said several times before mentioned when all added together he believes ~~they~~ make about ~~Eighteen~~ ~~thirteen~~ one year & one month & one third ~~months or one~~ ~~one third~~ ~~or a half years~~ and the said declarer in answer to the questions propounded by the Court as required by the Instructions from the War Department says that to the best of his knowledge and belief he was born in Granville County in the State of North Carolina on the 14th day of October 1759 he says he had at one time a record of his age in a bible which his Father gave him but he says it is lost that he was living in Wilkes County in the State of North Carolina at the time he ~~entered~~ entred the service of the United States and between the times of the several times of service aforesaid and ~~for~~ for about twenty five years afterwards

State of Indiana }
Morgan county } personally appeared before the undersigned a Justice of the peace in and for said county of Morgan and State aforesaid George Baker who being duly sworn deposeth and saith that by reason of old age and the consequent loss of memory he cannot state positive as to the precise length of his Services, but according to the best of his recollection, he served not less than the periods below and in the following grades to wit. In his first tour, (As recited in his declaration) he served not less than three months as a private. In his second tour he served three months as a private In his third tour (As recited in his declaration Supposed to have been the year 1775) he Served not less than one month and ten days As a private He says he ~~says~~ was Mistaken As to the name of the Captain under whom he Served on that tour The Captains name was Walton instead of Hightower As Stated in his declaration In his fourth tour he Served not less than three months all of which time he served as a captain except four days which four days he served as Ensign. He says that upon examination of a more correct data, he finds that he was Mistaken As to the time he entered the Service on said tour; that he is Now Satisfied that he entered On said tour About the first of November 1780 instead of 1778 & 79 As was stated in his declaration — In his fifth tour he entered the service in the Spring of 1781 and served not less than three months as a private In his sixth tour (which was the seventh tour against the tories) he served not less than one month as a private This deponant further saith for answer to the 14th interrogatories in the brief of objections forwarded from the war department that he was of the opinnion that the Judge of the court did certify as to the credibility of the witnesses whose names were subscribed to the certificate of his revolutionary services ~~and that~~ This deponant further saith that the reverend James Lunsford is and was at the time of the signing therof a respectable Clergyman of said County and that John Gray Signor is and was as aforesaid a respectable citizen of said county both resident in the neighborhood of the aforesaid George Baker, and that the individual who drew this deponants declaration has through mistake omitted to insert the said Lunsfords and Grays names in said certificate and probably having heard this deponant speak of geting a certain Clergyman by the name Geo W. Baker to certify for him, has insertted his name instead of Lunsfords: whose name should have been inserted. And this deponant saith that in all the aforesaid tours he served in the United States army at least fourteen months and ten days and for which service he claims a pension

GEORGE BAKER
S. 17249
BA-J/MLB

Mr. Robert M. Duke
Martinsville
Indiana

Dear Sir:

The data which follow in regard to George Baker were obtained from the papers in pension claim, S. 17249, based upon his service in the Revolutionary War.

George Baker was born October 14, 1759, in Granville County, North Carolina; the names of his parents are not shown.

While residing in Wilkes County, North Carolina, George Baker volunteered sometime in 1775 and served one month ten days as private in Captain Walton's company in the North Carolina troops. He enlisted in May or June, 1776, served as private in Captain John Baptista Ashe's company, Colonel Lillington's 6" North Carolina Regiment, and was discharged about the first of September, 1776, on account of sickness. He enlisted the middle of May, 1777, served as private in the North Carolina troops, names of officers not stated, and was discharged the middle of August, 1777. He entered the service about November 1, 1780, for three months, under Colonel Joseph Phillips in the North Carolina troops, served four days as ensign under Captain William Knowl, and as daptain of the company for the remainder of the term. From the spring of 1781, he served three months as private under Captains Robert Coyl and Robert King in the North Carolina troops, against the Indians on the Holston River and in its vicinity. He served, also, as private under Captain Andrew Baker (no relationship stated) in the North Carolina troops on several scouting parties, amounting to one month.

George Baker continued to reside in Wilkes County, North Carolina, for about twenty-five years after the Revolutionary War, then moved to Clay County, Kentucky, where he lived until about 1827 when he moved to Morgan County, Indiana. While a resident of Morgan County, Indiana, he was allowed pension on his application executed November 13, 1832.

It is not stated in the claim whether George Baker ever married.

In 1832, George Baker's brother, Boling Baker, made affidavit in behalf of the soldier in Morgan County, Indiana. In that year, the soldier stated that he was known to George Baker in his neighborhood in Morgan County, and in the same year, one George W. Baker was referred to as a clergyman residing in Morgan County, Indiana; the relationship of the two last named to each other or to soldier's family was not stated.

In order to obtain the date of last payment of pension, the name and address of the person paid and possibly the date of death of George Baker, you should write to the Comptroller General, General Accounting Office, Records Division, this city, and cite the following data: George Baker, certificate #19361, issued July or August, 1833, rate, $47.77 per annum, commenced March 4, 1831, Act June 7, 1832, Indiana Agency.

Very truly yours

BRANDEIS TOO BUSY TO ACT

Mexican Question Settlement Is Held Up.

CALLS UPON PRESIDENT

Secretary Lane is the Only One of Three Named to Commission Who Accepts—Third Member Is Yet Considering the Matter.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Associate Justice Louis D. Brandeis has declined to serve on the Mexican mediation commission. He called at the white house personally to place his declination before the president. This action followed an interview with Chief Justice White at which the latter objected to participation by a member of the United States supreme court in the Mexican mediation conference.

The white house gave out the text of Justice Brandeis' declination. It is as follows:

"My Dear Mr. President:

"I appreciate the opportunity for high service which membership on the Mexican commission would present. But upon consultation with the chief justice, I find the state of the business of the supreme court at the present time to be such that it is my duty, not to undertake this important additional task.

"With deep regret, faithfully yours
LOUIS D. BRANDEIS."

The refusal of Justice Brandeis to serve on the Mexican commission will delay further steps toward settlement of the Mexican question. Secretary of the Interior Lane is the only one of the three members of the commission who has accepted. The names of the third member has been withheld by the white house pending receipt of his acceptance.

Justice Brandeis was accompanied to the white house by Attorney-General Gregory, with whom he had been in conference after returning to Washington from his interview with Chief Justice White. The chief justice is understood to have urged not only the press of business as his reason for objecting to Justice Brandeis' acceptance of the commission appointment, but to have expressed the view that there was a certain impropriety in having a member of the supreme court serve on a political commission.

Attorney-General Gregory did not share this view, and so advised Justice Brandeis, but the latter insisted on withdrawing from the Mexican

FRATERNAL MEN TO MEET IN CLEVELAND

National Congress Will Convene Aug. 21.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 15.—The annual meeting of the National Fraternal Congress of America will convene here the week of Aug. 21, when representatives from eighty-five of the leading fraternal societies in the United States and Canada will meet in one of the most important sessions ever held.

One of the most important subjects which will come before this body is the movement to advertise fraternals. It has been felt by progressive fraternal leaders that the subject of fraternal protection has received publicity in the past only through the medium of the friends of individual societies. A campaign of advertising is hoped shortly to be inaugurated which will place before the masses through the newspaper columns, the Outlook Over the Situation Brigh Following Conferences at the W House—Further Conferences Find Solution of Differences.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Presi Wilson put squarely up to the roads the questing of preventin nation-wide strike.

The president held separate co ences with the representatives of brotherhoods and the representat of the railroads. It is understood the labor leaders agreed to arbit their main contentions, namely, eight-hour day and time and a r overtime. It is underst fused to consider arbitra railway's counter demands

The railway managers seem and despondent. They have closeted for hours in secret ses threshing out the situation.

The union men appear entirely isfied. They seem more confid than jubilant.

Following his conference with railway managers the president thorized this statement:

"I have met both sides and h gone over the case with the utm frankness. I will not be able to ju until later whether we have foun feasible basis of settlement."

The president, according to th who attended the conference, sho a familiarity with the situation t surprised the men. "The presid was most sympathetic," said one the brotherhood leaders, "and his prising knowledge of the situati and of our position, may result in understanding being reached."

The president, it was said, subm ted no counter proposition to the m but he held out hope for an adju ment by legislation, if necessary.

The impression prevailed amo the brotherhood leaders that as a la resort the president might ask t congress for eight-hour day legisl tion.

The president will meet both of t opposing groups today. The comm tee from the managers will visit th white house first. When their conf ence is concluded the union heads wi meet the chief executive.

FOUGHT IN THE REVOLUTION

GRANDFATHER OF A. R. BAKER WAS A VALIANT SOLDIER IN THE WAR THAT MADE THE U. S. A FREE NATION.

ENLISTED 7 TIMES DURING THAT WAR

His Grandfather On His Mother's Side Fought With Andrew Jackson In the Battle of New Orleans In the War of 1812.

A. R. Baker, residing six miles south of this city, has in his possession pension papers that were issued to his grandfather, George F. Baker, a soldier in the Revolutionary war, which he prizes very highly, in fact he would not part with them under any consideration because of the family history connected with them. When the Revolutionary war came on his grandfather resided in North Carolina. He promptly took up arms in behalf of his country and during the eight years of warfare which finally ended in a victory for the Americans and resulted in making this a free nation, he enlisted seven times. He was one of the heroic band who believed in staying with the fight until it was finished, no matter how many times his services were required, hence when one term of enlistment would expire, he would promptly re-enlist and he fought with his comrades until victory was achieved. He went in as a private and came out a captain. Mr. Baker is proud to own these papers.

Absalom H. Fulford, grandfather of Mr. Baker on his mother's side, was a soldier in the American army during the war of 1812, and fought under General Andrew Jackson, "Old Hickory," in the battle of New Orleans when the British soldiers were so disastriously defeated.

Mr. Baker's father, George M. Baker, came from Kentucky to this county in 1820, and settled on a tract of land on Gose Creek, south of Martinsville. His father is buried in the Liberty cemetery.

When the civil war came on Mr. Baker was too young to enlist, but he remembers very distinctly many stirring incidents of that period that transpired in this community. During the war, a stage from here would meet a stage from Indianapolis at Waverly, and would bring mail and newspapers from Indianapolis to this city. The stage would be met by eager citizens as it came down Morgan street who would receive copies of the old Indianapolis Journal, and soon an eager crowd would be gathered about the owner of each paper, anxious to learn the latest news from the war.

PROOFS FOR GEORGE F. BAKER AS THE FATHER OF GEORGE M. BAKER

Morgan Co. Ind. Probate Book I which covers 1841 has been lost for many years, Probate Book II starts in the year 1842. Therefore, a marriage record was sought out in Monroe Co. Ind., hoping to find consent of marriages which also are far and few between as they were written on just pieces of paper and turned over to the clerk when a couple obtained their license. The court house records in the Clerk's office have no consents of marriages as early as 1829 in Monroe Co., IN and that is true in many of the counties in Ind.

By checking out the 1840 census of Morgan Co., Ind. there was a very elderly man between 80 and 90 living in the household of William Baker, who was the son of the above George F. Baker, as well as being a brother of George M. Baker.

The enclosed deed transactions between George F. Baker transferring land for a consideration of only $10 is very nominal. At the same George F. Baker transferred land for a consideration of $10 to another son, these children were: George M. Baker in one deed and William Baker in the other deed. These deeds are attached.

George F. Baker was applying for a pension from his service time in the Revolution, so by 1840 he had gotten rid of his property and had moved in with one of the older sons, namely, William Baker.

The tombstone in the Liberty Cemetery does not show George M. Baker as the son of George F. Baker. So, most of the possible sources are exhausted. About the time that George M. Baker -latter years he deeds this same land over to his daughter, Eliza who was married to Henry Peterson.

CHAPTER 3

203-George Baker, Rev. War Soldier

Material on this family was researched and sent by Mrs. Andrew G. Lofquist (living 1980), 509 N. Dunton-Apt. 5, Arlington Heights,IL 60004.

Most of the information that we have regarding George Baker has been obtained from papers relating to a pension claim based upon his service in the Revolutionary War. He applied for pension in Morgan Co., Indiana, on November 13, 1832, being then 73 years of age. In the following year, on July 9, 1833, he made an additional declaration before Justice of the Peace, Charles B. Butler, for it appears that the War Department had forwarded further interrogations in order to clarify certain statements made in his first declaration. Pension was granted in July or August in 1833, and the rate was $47.77 per annum.

At the time of his enlistment for service in the North Carolina troops, George Baker was living in Wilkes Co.,NC. Military records list six tours of service and show that the total time spent in these tours amounted to 14 months and 10 days.

During the war he served as a private under Captain John Baptist Ashe, in Colonel Lillington's Regiment, and held the same rank while serving under Captains Walton, Robert Coyl, Robert King, and Andrew Baker.

In the later part of the war, on about November 1, 1780, he entered service for 3 months under Colonel Joseph Phillips in the North Carolina Troops, and in this tour he served 4 days as ensign under Captain William Knowl and as captain for the remainder of the term.

George Baker mentions in his pension declaration several marches made against the enemy, and he also stated that in the spring of 1781, while serving under Captains King and Coyl, that he was engaged in scouting activities on the Holston River and in its vicinity for the purpose of preventing the indians from doing mischief to the white people. He further related that he was a member of another scouting party, while serving under the command of Captain Andrew Baker (no relationship stated), and its purpose was to prevent the Tories from doing mischief in Wilkes Co. (in North Carolina).

The Revolutionary soldier continued to live in Wilkes Co.,NC, for about 25 years, and then, shortly after the turn of the century, he moved to Clay Co.,KY. He resided in Kentucky among other Baker kinfolk until about 1827 when he and son Morris (and perhaps others of his children) moved to Morgan Co. in central Indiana. Their location there was in Washington Township of that county.

We know definitely that George Baker, the soldier of the Revolution, had a brother Bolin Baker (also referred to a Bowling or Boling) who also served in that war. Bolin married Patsy Morris, and she may have been a sister of Susannah, his brother's wife.

Indications are that Bolin Baker journeyed from his home in Kentucky to Morgan Co.,IN, in 1832, for on September 17 of that year the brothers appeared before Justice of the Peace, James Crawford, of Morgan Co., and each made an affidavit in behalf of the other for the purpose of verifying their services in the Revolution. These affidavits were used later for certification by the brothers in their applications for pensions.

Descendants of George Baker and Susannah Morris.

Morgan county } Personally appeared before the undersigned a Justice of the peace in and for said county of Morgan and State aforesaid George Baker. Who being duly sworn deposeth and saith that by reason of old age and the consequent loss of memory. He cannot state positive as to the precise length of his Service, but According to the best of his recollection, he served not less than the periods below and in the following grades to wit. In his first tour (As recited in his declaration) he served not less than three months as a private. In his second tour he served three months as a private In his third tour (As recited in his declaration Supposed to have been the year 1775) he served not less than one month and ten days As a private He says he ~~says~~ was mistaken As to the name of the Captain under whom he served on that tour. The Captains name was Walton instead of Hightower As stated in his declaration In his fourth tour he served not less than three months all of which time he served as a captain except four days which four days he served as Ensign. He says that upon examination of a more correct data, he finds that he was mistaken As to the time he entered the service on said tour, that he is Now satisfied that he entered On said tour About the first of November 1780 instead of 1778 & 79 As was stated in his declaration. On his fifth tour he entered the service in the Spring of 1781 and served not less than three months as a private. In his sixth tour (which was the Scouting tour against the tories) he served not less than one month as a private. This deponant further saith for answer to the 14th interrogatories in the brief of objections forwarded from the War department that he was of the opinion that the Judge of the court did certify as to the credibility of the witnesses whose names were subscribed to the certificate of his revolutionary services. ~~and that~~ This deponant further saith that the reverend James Lunsford is and was at the time of the signing therof a respectable Clergyman of said county. and that John Gray Signor is and was as aforesaid a respectable citizen of said county both resident in the neighborhood of the aforesaid George Baker. And that the individual who drew this deponants declaration has through mistake omited to insert the said Lunsfords and Grays names in said certificate and probably having heard this deponant speak of geting a certain Clergyman by the name Geo W. Baker to certify for him, has inserted his name instead of Lunsfords: whose name should have been inserted. And this deponant saith that in all the aforesaid tours he served in the United State army at least fourteen months and ten days and for which service he claims a pension

Dear Mrs. Smock,

Aren't those people in Martinsville helpful? Nancy Bennett has gone out of her way to help so many of us - We are most grateful for the interest that people in Indiana have for those North Carolinians who are trying to trace their families as they migrated westward.

I wish I could give you some information on your family, but I don't find any of those names in our line - my husband's family. That certainly does not mean there is no connection, but just that I haven't made it yet!

My husband's ancestor, William Ward, Sr., brought his family into Rowan Co. (now Davidson) in the 1880's or 90's from Chatham Co., both N.C. Only one son stayed; the others: William, Stephen, Anthony & Jonathan all left the state, never to be heard from again - except Jonathan, in Ky in 1849. Perhaps this is our link!

If I learn anything helpful, I'll be glad to send it along.

Cordially,
Evelyn Ward

NORTH CAROLINA

The First Provincial Congress that met in August 1774 at New Bern recommended that each county elect a Committee of Safety.

In April 1775, the Second Provincial Congress met.

In May 1775, the Mecklenburg Resolves were adopted at a public meeting at Charlotte declaring null and void all commissions granted by the King and making provisions for a new government. At New Bern, the Committee of Safety called for a union of all colonies and pledged support for the Continental Congress. Governor Martin fled the state; royal rule ended.

On 12 April 1776, the Fourth Provincial Congress met at Halifax, unanimously adopting a resolution to Continental Congress known as the Halifax Resolves. This resolution gave the delegates of North Carolina the power to concur with delegates of other colonies to declare independence.

In addition to the continental forces, North Carolina organized Military Districts – Edenton, Halifax, Hillsborough, New Bern, Wilmington, Salisbury and eventually Morgan. Three areas of North Carolina had heavy concentrations of loyalists; the Cape Fear Region with its wealthy merchants and plantation owners; the Piedmont whose Scottish highlanders had received land in exchange for an oath of loyalty to the King; and the western counties whose German and Quaker populations did not sympathize with the war.

Because of the shortage of money in all of the colonies, various types of "notes of credit" were devised. In North Carolina, those who provided goods or services were given slips of paper, official forms, or handwritten scraps of paper. These slips were to be redeemed for cash with interest. In 1780, these vouchers were recalled and new notes were issued, cut from its stub in a curved manner called "indented" for later identification. Not all vouchers were records of Revolutionary War military service. Only forty to fifty thousand of the vouchers have been saved. These vouchers were registered in the Revolutionary Army Account books. An explanation of the types of records contained in each volume in which the researcher is interested should be consulted.

A designation of patriotic service is given to any person who entered a land claim for a land grant between 1 January 1778 and 26 November 1783 (the date of the law and the latest date accepted by NSDAR for any service). The law states (State Records of North Carolina, vol. 24, p. 44) "That every person … before he shall enter a claim for any of the lands aforesaid, shall take and subscribe the Oath or Affirmation of Allegiance and Abjuration prescribed by the law of this state."

During the revolution, the area now known as Tennessee was claimed and loosely administered by North Carolina. The settlers in southeastern Tennessee, in the area around the Watauga River, drew up a compact of government called the Watauga Association. This association petitioned the North Carolina Legislature in August 1776 requesting annexation to North Carolina. In May 1780, persons from a settlement on the Cumberland River in Middle Tennessee drafted the Cumberland Compact. Signers of both of these documents are considered to have patriotic service as a signer of a petition. Men from the area that is now Tennessee served in North Carolina units.

North Carolina gave military bounty warrants to its continental line soldiers. The Military Land District, where these grants were to be located, was in Middle Tennessee mainly in the area of then Davidson and Sumner Counties. No military bounty land was given within the present boundaries of North Carolina. These military warrants could be sold or assigned so the person receiving the grant was not necessarily the person who performed the military service. Not all land grants in Tennessee at this time period were given for military service. The North Carolina Archives may be able to help in determining the person to whom a revolutionary military bounty land warrant was awarded.

An article by Mayme Green talks about Wiley Burns and his family. She says there were 3 or 4 John Burns in the area about that time. One was known to be a cousin to the sons and daughters of Wiley Burns and wife Mary. Wiley's son John (Jack) was born in 1830, the cousin John was born in 1836. In the civil war record of this cousin John, it states he is married to Elizabeth Glessner. Mayme Green said she had always thought her to be a BAKER. There was a GLESSNER family in Morgan County and several in Monroe County Indiana around 1850 to 1860. She may very well have been a BAKER married a Glessner, was left a widow and married this John Burns. He is the father of Morton Burns, grandfather of Raymond Burns and great-grandfather to Virginia (Burns) Martindale, Gary Burns and Terry Burns.

If these John Burns' are cousins, that means their fathers were brothers. Wiley's parents are William M. Sr. Burns and Nancy Chandler. I looked up William and Nancy and found they had 11 children. Of the 11 children, only 2 of them have a son John. One was Wiley Burns born 1800, has son John Jack born 1830, the other was John Burns Sr. born 1796, has son John Jr., born 1836.

I looked up John Sr. Burns on the computer and found the following:

John Sr. Burns

Wiley and Mary

In the year 1829 the hills of Clay County Kentucky were busting with Burns'. This was the year Wiley left the mountains of Kentucky and began the long trek to the hills of Morgan County Indiana.

Wiley owned fifty acres on South Fork in Kentucky. He sold this in 1829 to his nephew, James Burns. James had married Polly Percifield in 1826 and was, I am sure, looking for a parcel of land to settle down on and raise his family.

The exodus from Clay County continued. Families like the Fulfords, Hackers, Ashers, Bales and many others left Clay County Kentucky and came here to Morgan and Monroe counties. Their descendants are still a big part of these counties.

The obvious reason for Wiley and Mary coming to Indiana is because her family, the Bakers, were among some of the first families making the trip. I am sure many hours were spent contemplating such a move. To leave all your family and head out for places unknown was a big undertaking to say the least. But, move they did. With four small children they packed up all their earthly belongings and headed over the mountains and across Kentucky.

Their sturdiest wagons were used. Made with seasoned lumber, probably braced with metal. The cracks would be filled with red clay mud or caulking. Making them as water tight as possible. Heavy axles and springs were used to support the loaded wagons.

Personal possessions were limited, of course, probably little more than a change of clothing with blankets, quilts and cooking utensils. Food supplies such as flour, corn meal, cured hams and bacon, coffee, sugar, dried fruit, beans and salt took up much of the space. We can only surmise how long the trip took. One would think they could travel ten to twelve miles each day. Stopping mid-day to rest the horses, mules or oxens. At points the trail would be deeply rutted by earlier wagons. Other places so covered with underbrush it became almost invisible. I'm sure some time was spent along side the swollen river banks waiting for the water to recede. So travel was slow.

Wiley would have been about twenty-nine years old. Young, strong and a excellent horseman. Mary was almost twenty-four years old. Happy and very excited about this new home they were traveling to. One can almost see her busying herself with the cooking and washing clothes in the streams and creeks they crossed. Even scrubbing the children in the same waterway.

One of the four children was Keziah, their first born. Being born in 1822, she would be about seven years old. William, their first born son, would be around five. James, only three and George just a babe in arms. I can almost see Keziah as she runs along the trail thick with foliage, picking wild flowers and berries. And helping her mother with the younger children. William would have been big enough to gather fire wood and help drive the extra cattle along side. I can imagine James only a toddler, sleeping the hours away atop quilts piled in the corner of the wagon. George, the fourth child, was born 1828. This would lead you to believe that Wiley and Mary waited in Clay County for him to be old enough to travel the long hard wilderness road.

As the wagons moved into Indiana territory, they headed north. Some stopping off in Monroe County and some coming a bit farther here to Morgan County.

Wiley and Mary first stopped in Monroe County. They bought land on section thirteen and stayed there until after the 1830 census. I found them there with the name of Wiley so misspelled it is hardly recognizable (Wilie Bourns). But, the birthplace, ages of Wiley, Mary and their five children (Yes, five) coincide with exactly the ages I had for them. So, I have no doubt this household #165, Monroe County Indiana, 1830 is Wiley and Mary and their fifth child, John. John was born during the short time they lived there.

The Bakers (Mary's family) had come to Morgan County in 1828 and settled about five miles south of Martinsville, Indiana. The land had so much to offer. Good flat bottom land to be cleared, cultivated and planted. A forest of trees to be used for building. Even a small creek running through the middle of it for all the fresh water needed.

1831 finds Wiley and Mary leaving Monroe County and entering seventy-seven acres of land next to her folk here in Morgan County. Like all the pioneers coming before him, Wiley wasted no time constructing a shelter for his family. With help from his in-laws, a log cabin was raised. It didn't take much longer than a day or two. Next they erected a big barn on the hill just across from the newly built log cabin.

(See deed at Morgan County Court House)

Wiley was a veterinarian of sorts. Although he did not have a degree, he was very knowledgeable in the practice of animal husbandry. His barns were always housing some neighbors horses or cattle as he doctored them.

Being woodsmen and outdoorsmen from the heart of Kentucky, Wiley and the Baker's made use of the timber surrounding their new home. It was used for everything from firewood to logs for cabins. Many railroad ties were cut, hewed and taken to the nearest log site, most likely by the same team of oxen that had brought them to Indiana.

In 1832 Wiley B. was born. By this time land had been cleared and several acres had been planted. Vegetable gardens were flourishing. A few pigs and chickens were being raised to help put food on the table.

In 1834 still another son was born and named Bedford, making a family of six sons and one daughter. It was about this time Wiley and Mary gave one acre of their land for the purpose of building a church. A place where they might go and worship God. They did go, as old records of Liberty Christian Church attest to

Burns Trivia

Brice Burns, older brother of Wiley went to Bartholomew Co. Ind. Lived and raised a family there. He died 1850 in that Co. and is buried there. Many Burns family still in and about Bartholomew Co. Inc.

Keziah, sister of Wiley married John Baker and moved to Morgan Co. Ind. Back to Ky. Back to Ind. and on to Linn Co. Mo. Died there. Yes! Wiley & Mary named their oldest daughter Keziah after his sister.

Some of Bedford Burns' children moved to Mattoon, Ill.

Daniel Burns lived in Mattoon, Coles Co. Ill. 3 March 1909.

Also find a John Burns, Mattoon, Ill. b. 1837.

I find a John Burns buying 80 acres 7 Aug. 1828 Section 25 Range 2 East 14 North, Mooresville, Ind.

I find a John Burns buying 80 acres 8 Oct. 1831 Section 12 Range 1E 11 North State Rd. 252, and Leonard Rd. Martinsville, Ind. Thus making him appear in Morgan Co. Ind. at the same time as our earliest Burns and Bakers. This could well be the father of the John Burns that married Elizabeth (Baker?) (Glessner?).

There were and still are Burns in Green Twp. Morgan Co. Ind. "no connection established to date".

William W. Burns (early law) listed as a resident lawyer by Charles Blanchard's Morgan, Monroe and Brown Co. History.

James Burns listed in same history as an Associate Judge 1827.

Conrad Burns' estate being settled in 1822. This is the earliest Burns I found in Morgan Co.

Liberty Cemetery, Washington Township, Morgan Co., Ind. Township 11 North Range 1 East Section 19, where many of the Burns' are buried.

Brother and sister: James H. Whitaker and Zora Whitaker (step children of Salome Denny Whitaker) grew up and married brother and sister Katie Burns and Wiley L. Burns. Children of Wiley B. Burns and Emily Nathis.

One of the Twelve

#1.E John (Jack) Burns was born 1830, probably in Monroe County Indiana. As a young man of eighteen, he married Jane De Hart. We know he died before his father, Wiley. He was not listed among the heirs of his father's will probated 1879. But, his children were....

It should be noted there were three or four John Burns in and about here at that time. One who was known to be a cousin to all these sons and daughters of Wiley and Mary's, but he was born 1836. Some six years after our John.

In the civil war record of this cousin John, it states he is married to Elizabeth Glessner. Mayme Green said she had always thought her to be a Baker. There was a Glessner family in Morgan County and several in Monroe County Indiana around 1850 to 1860. She may very well have been a Baker, married a Glessner, was left a widow and married this John Burns.

He is the father of Morton Burns, grandfather of Raymond Burns and great-grandfather to Virginia (Burns) Martindale, Gary Burns and Terry Burns. I continue to search this branch of the Burns family.

Baker, Eliz - m. Francis M. Bowman = May 26, 1877

Wm Burns (Wiley son) Clay Co. Ky. - death after 1841 (?)
ck for John Burns
father in Clay Co. K,

Baker family came to Morgan Co. in 1828 settled 5 miles So of Martinsville. The land had much to offer. Good flat bottom land to be cleared, cultivated & planted. a forest of trees to be used for building. Etc. — a small creek running through the middle of it for all the fresh water.

Wiley Burns left Ky. in 1829

It should be noted there were 3 or 4 John Burns in & about here at the same time. One who was known to be a cousin to the children of Wiley & Mary Baker Burns. But he was born in 1836. Some 6 yrs. after our John. In the civil War record of this cousin John, it states he is married to Eliz Baker Glessner. Mayme Green said she had always thought her to be a Baker. There was a Glessner family in Morgan Co. & several in Monroe Co. Ind. around 1850-60. She may very well have been a Baker, married a Glessner, was left a widow & married John Burns.

Burns Trivia

Brice Burns, older brother of Wiley went to Bartholomew Co. Ind. Lived and raised a family there. He died 1850 in that Co. and is buried there. Many Burns family still in and about Bartholomew Co. Inc.

Keziah, sister of Wiley married John Baker and moved to Morgan Co. Ind. Back to Ky. Back to Ind. and on to Linn Co. Mo. Died there. Yes! Wiley & Mary named their oldest daughter Keziah after his sister.

Some of Bedford Burns' children moved to Mattoon, Ill.

Daniel Burns lived in Mattoon, Coles Co. Ill. 3 March 1909.

Also find a John Burns, Mattoon, Ill. b. 1837.

I find a John Burns buying 80 acres 7 Aug. 1828 Section 25 Range 2 East 14 North, Mooresville, Ind.

I find a John Burns buying 80 acres 8 Oct. 1831 Section 12 Range 1E 11 North State Rd. 252, and Leonard Rd. Martinsville, Ind. Thus making him appear in Morgan Co. Ind. at the same time as our earliest Burns and Bakers. This could well be the father of the John Burns that married Elizabeth (Baker?) (Glessner?).

There were and still are Burns in Green Twp. Morgan Co. Ind. "no connection established to date".

William W. Burns (early law) listed as a resident lawyer by Charles Blanchard's Morgan, Monroe and Brown Co. History.

James Burns listed in same history as an Associate Judge 1827.

Conrad Burns' estate being settled in 1822. This is the earliest Burns I found in Morgan Co.

Liberty Cemetery, Washington Township, Morgan Co., Ind. Township 11 North Range 1 East Section 19, where many of the Burns' are buried.

Records of Samuel Gordon Burns says John (Jack) Burns married Jane Gladden DeHart. 1850 Census shows family of Martin DeHart and wife Permela living right next door to Burns families.

6th Gen. 6.

This cemetery is located on JORDAN Road south of Martinsville, near Liberty Church. about 1/2 mile east of the Liberty Church, turning off of Jurdon road going south 1/10 of a mile to a farm, through the barn yard, no road to the cemetery and a walk up the hill of about 1/4 to 1/2 mile, the small cemetery was enclosed with a wire fence and a small white gate on top of a knoll. There were many graves unmarked as stones were so scattered except at the west end where there were two rows with many good stones well marked. The cemetery looked abandoned and showed lack of care.

The first grave by the gate was that of George Baker, the Rev. Soldier.

Morgan Co. Ind. Probate Book I which covers 1841 has been lost for many years, Probate Book II starts in the year 1842. Therefore, a marriage record was sought out in Monroe Co. Ind., hoping to find consent of marriages which also are far and few between as they were written on just pieces of paper and turned over to the clerk when a couple obtained their license. The court house records in the Clerk's office have no consents of marriages as early as 1829 in Monroe Co., IN and that is true in many of the counties in Ind.

By checking out the 1840 census of Morgan Co., Ind. there was a very elderly man between 80 and 90 living in the household of William Baker, who was the son of the above George F. Baker, as well as being a brother of George M. Baker.

The enclosed deed transactions between George F. Baker transferring land for a consideration of only $10 is very nominal. At the same George F. Baker transferred land for a consideration of $10 to another son, these children were: George M. Baker in one deed and William Baker in the other deed. These deeds are attached.

George F. Baker was applying for a pension from his service time in the Revolution, so by 1840 he had gotten rid of his property and had moved in with one of the older sons, namely, William Baker.

The tombstone in the Liberty Cemetery does not show George M. Baker as the son of George F. Baker. So, most of the possible sources are exhausted. About the time that George M. Baker -latter years he deeds this same land over to his daughter, Eliza who was married to Henry Peterson.

Of
course this was more than a century before a lot of the Bakers were born.
The deed was recorded about 1803 by an attachment, which could be an indication that he had died.
When he witnessed Hugh Smith's will he signed James Baker, Esquire, which would lead one to believe that he was an older man as his son Andrew signed only as Andrew Baker. In 1790 James Baker shows himself and wife

four boys under sixteen, but these could have been orphaned grandsons. The significant thing is that James also shows two slaves. Such rare and valuable possessions at that time that there is implication that he ought to be a middle-aged or elderly man. Moreover, this James does not appear in any census after 1790, suggesting that he died before 1800.

We know that Capt. Thomas Calloway of French and Indian War fame, married Mary Baker, aunt of Rev. Andrew Baker and John Baker. For these reasons James Baker was the father of the following: Morris Baker who married Patsy Smith, daughter of Hugh and Jane Smith; Robert Baker probably lived in Grayson Co., VA; Rev. Andrew Baker, CHAPLIN in American Revolution, married Susannah Vanoy and possibly Elizabeth Avant second; George Baker who married Susannah Morris; Bolling baker who married Martha (Patsy) Morris; Eleanor Baker married Jesse Ray of American Revolution; Martha (Patsy) Baker married Justice Bowling: and five sons and two sons-in-laws were active in the American Revolution.

Morris and Patsy Smith Baker were the parents of the following: Zachariah and James who married daughters of Captain John Cox. Jonathan Baker who married Mary Koontz. Jeremiah Baker whose son Morris may have married a daughter of John Koontz. Robert who married Jane Reeves. Mary (Polly) Baker who married Meredith Ballou. Jane Baker who married John Williams. Nancy Baker who married Edward hart. Susannah Baker who married John Stringer. Baker who married William Caldwell, and Esther Baker who married Enoch Baldwin, Jr.

Court records reveal that Morris Baker died in 1810-1811 and his sons Zachariah and Jonathan were in charge of settling the estate. There were two children under age and they jointly asked that their mother Patsy Baker be named guardian. Ester was soon married to Enoch Baldwin, Jr. And they went to Ohio to live for a while. When her name was called out she did not have any representation so the court record "called and failed" was given.

The Baldwin's must have returned to North Carolina before too long. Records show there were only three sons born of the marriage: Noah Calton Baldwin, William Madison Baldwin, and Wiley Gordon Baldwin.

Esther Baker Baldwin is said to have been buried in the Glade Springs, Virginia Cemetery.

CHAPTER 3

203-George Baker, Rev. War Soldier

Material on this family was researched and sent by Mrs. Andrew G. Lofquist (living 1980), 509 N. Dunton-Apt. 5, Arlington Heights,IL 60004.

Most of the information that we have regarding George Baker has been obtained from papers relating to a pension claim based upon his service in the Revolutionary War. He applied for pension in Morgan Co., Indiana, on November 13, 1832, being then 73 years of age. In the following year, on July 9, 1833, he made an additional declaration before Justice of the Peace, Charles B. Butler, for it appears that the War Department had forwarded further interrogations in order to clarify certain statements made in his first declaration. Pension was granted in July or August in 1833, and the rate was $47.77 per annum.

At the time of his enlistment for service in the North Carolina troops, George Baker was living in Wilkes Co.,NC. Military records list six tours of service and show that the total time spent in these tours amounted to 14 months and 10 days.

During the war he served as a private under Captain John Baptist Ashe, in Colonel Lillington's Regiment, and held the same rank while serving under Captains Walton, Robert Coyl, Robert King, and Andrew Baker.

In the later part of the war, on about November 1, 1780, he entered service for 3 months under Colonel Joseph Phillips in the North Carolina Troops, and in this tour he served 4 days as ensign under Captain William Knowl and as captain for the remainder of the term.

George Baker mentions in his pension declaration several marches made against the enemy, and he also stated that in the spring of 1781, while serving under Captains King and Coyl, that he was engaged in scouting activities on the Holston River and in its vicinity for the purpose of preventing the indians from doing mischief to the white people. He further related that he was a member of another scouting party, while serving under the command of Captain Andrew Baker (no relationship stated), and its purpose was to prevent the Tories from doing mischief in Wilkes Co. (in North Carolina).

The picture attached once belonged to Harrison Burns. Although the soldiers are not identified, we are fairly sure that two and maybe all three of the Burns Brothers were present for this memorable scene atop Look Out Mountain, Tennessee. Civil War Records of all three brothers Andrew, Harrison,& Wiley place them with their regiment(70th. Indiana Volunteers) at this location May 2nd. 1864. Mayne Green feels very strongly that the 8th. soldier reading left to right ,top row is her grandfather Harrison Burns.
Of the three soldiers in the front row , the middle one looks so much like El Burns, so this could be Wiley B.Burns father of Elmer E. Burns.
Andrew Burns was only 19 years old and may well be the young dare devil on the far out edge of the rock.But we must not overlook the 5th. soldier , top row that looks so much like the one we think is Harrison. He could be Andrew.
